

A RESOLUTION to commend Andrew “Shane” Woodall on being named 1995 salutatorian at Lebanon High School.

WHEREAS, at a time when our youth face tremendous challenges and temptations, it is refreshing to know that there are many youth who work hard, are respectful of their teachers and parents and achieve academic success; and

WHEREAS, Andrew “Shane” Woodall, the 1995 salutatorian of Lebanon High School, is clearly one such model citizen of the Volunteer State; and

WHEREAS, Shane is the son of proud parents Andy and Deborah Woodall, loving brother of Kendra Woodall, who is in the eighth grade at Southside Elementary School, and grandson of Oscar and Clara Woodall and Claude and Minnette Nettles; and

WHEREAS, he received his elementary school education at Southside, was highly regarded by the principal and faculty and was honored with all eighth grade academic awards; and

WHEREAS, at Lebanon High, Shane had a final grade average of 97.79 and a grade point average of 4.0; and

WHEREAS, despite rigorous competition, he was selected the “Best All-Round” for the class of 1995; and:

WHEREAS, his outstanding ACT composite was 26, with an English score of 24, a reading score of 25, a science score of 25 and a math score of 29; and

WHEREAS, Shane was on the prestigious Principal's List for all four of his high school years and was listed in the notable Who's Who Among American High School Students for each of those years; and

WHEREAS, other honors he has received include being a member of the Governor's School for Science in 1993, being elected state senator for Boys' State in 1994 and being chosen a 1995 United States Army Reserve National Scholar/Athlete Award winner; and

WHEREAS, this multi-talented scholar-athlete was a valued member of the Lebanon High School football team each of his four years, and received the 1994 True Blue Award as a result of his important gridiron efforts. He was a member of the school track team in the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades and received the 1994 best field event recognition; and

WHEREAS, he has been a tireless, diligent and dedicated member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Students Taking a Right Stand, Drug Abuse Resistance Education and of the Beta Club and

WHEREAS, Shane has been active in several theater productions: "Dearly Departed", his junior year; "Extremities", his junior year, for which he was named Most Valuable Crew Member; and "Christmas Memories", his senior year, for which he was chosen Most Valuable Cast Member. He will star in "Emergency Room" in May of this year; and

WHEREAS, he has received letters of acceptance from the University of Tennessee Knoxville, the University of Memphis and Rhodes College. He plans to enter Rhodes in the fall of 1995, with an interest in biology/pre-med and plans to become a doctor; and

WHEREAS, his hobbies include swimming, computers, baseball cards and Star Trek movies; and

WHEREAS, the Wilson County Superintendent of Schools Karl Puryear; Lebanon High School Principal Steve Maloan and Assistant Principals John Calton, Melvin Daniels and Cathy Toombs are all especially proud of this fine scholar; and

WHEREAS, the members of this body find it appropriate to pause in their deliberations to specially recognize one of our best and brightest young citizens; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY
OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING,
That we honor and commend Andrew “Shane” Woodall on being the 1995 salutatorian at Lebanon High School and wish him well in his future endeavors.
